Explore New England's treasures ...

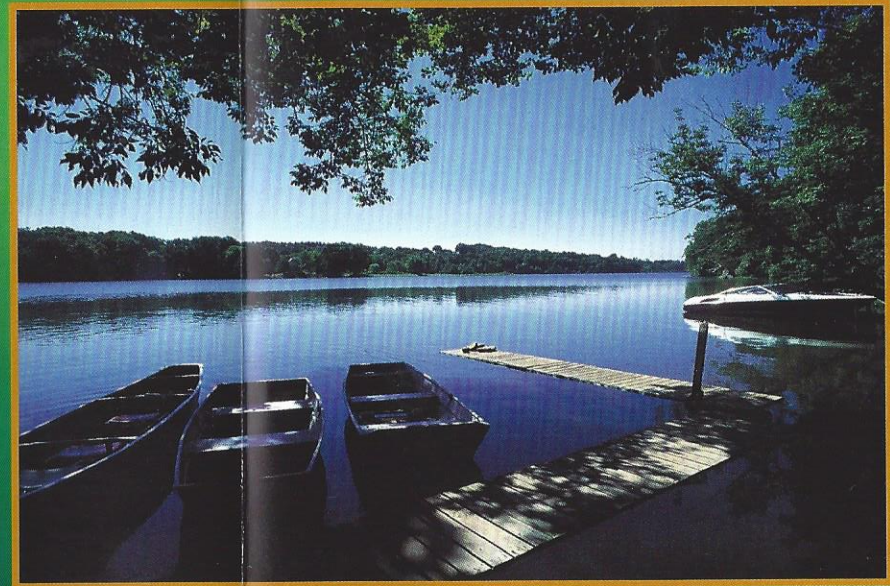

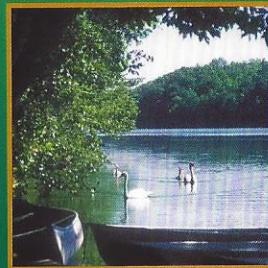

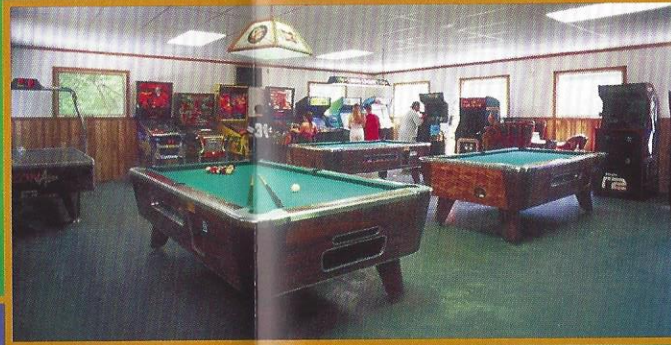

Ross Hill Park, a privately-owned family campground, is located on 50 picturesque acres along Southeastern Connecticut's Quinebaug River. The park's wooded and open terrain includes a full half mile of frontage along the river's shoreline, at the point where Aspinook Dam has created beautiful Aspinook Pond. Whether you prefer a waterfront site or the cool breezes of our higher ground, Ross Hill Park offers you the perfect spot to enjoy Connecticut camping at its best!
